MS. B.1.6 v.13, p.45

Do you wish them to stay in a Union — ought you to continue in a Union which thus "neither fears God, nor regards Man"?

The Slave Power plunges y^r country into difficulty, (war, &c.) & then to get out, & get Peace again, the North consents to do (just what South meant it should), adds Sanity

My dear Friend — I observe that y^r Study at 20. at y^r Ann. Meeting of y^r Am. Soc^y. We are very hard Churched but now all it is convenient to you to pay that sum it will be very acceptable.

I know that in your travels as Gen^l Agent — for travel, I suppose you will as well as travail — you will not Aunt's idea of Days' Works.

Shall we not be careful not to attempt to do tomorrow's work before to-days? — I certainly would not attempt to decide for any one, what his work ought to be today; but I do ask every one, Is not this Anti-Slavery work emphatically the burden of this age, of this home, and of this people, may of us?

We sometimes wonder, grieve, perhaps complain & are discouraged ℔. we cannot impress our thought, our sense of right, upon other minds, or even prevent them from misunderstanding & misrepresenting us.

Let us not forget ℔. Jesus found it so — Some whose darkened minds ℔. light of even his life could not penetrate, whose hardened heart refused to respond to his love.

& preachers

Religion is become as ℔. "an philanthropy is not more reverent & humble"

Reverent of what?

They blame us ℔. we take so one-sided a view of Xnty. — pray us little attention to the topical truths — now we admit ℔. "all truth is precious". but ℔. really divine truth is ℔. thought, acting in our souls, impels us to deeds of Christian and assimilates us more & more to ~~Christ~~ him who is perfect Love; and in this great work, & essence, & sum, & substance of religion may we ever be found engaged, & let those who prefer it settle ℔. questions of Trinitarianism & Free Will, & ℔. Origin of Evil, and ℔ other dogmas of ℔. sects, and answer it to God & their fellowmen as they can.

No body a better right to commemorate 4th July than ℔. Abolitn.

Lover of freedom true Defenders of ℔. truth ℔ God & Independence,

"We are more & better together here. No one looks down on other, because his intellectual gifts are fewer, still less because he is less largely endowed with worldly wealth — least of all, because God's wise creative power has made him with skin of another shade." "We are brethren a'."

One Idea — something to have one idea clearly, & have ℔ mind fixed duly, on one duty. But it is not time, let ℔. mind be strict to one great truth, it is proportionally sensitive to ~~all~~ every thing

Resn. of ℔. H. Legislature + serpent slaves, when it is